

JEANNE HONG

SPECIALTY: Child & Adolescent Psychiatry, General Psychiatry

Job Description: Attending Physician

Budget Title: Assistant Director, Psych Weekend Attending

CURRENT EMPLOYMENT

---

Los Angeles, CA

University of California San Diego 8/2009-present

Attending Physician

Assistant Clinical Professor

- Diplomate in Psychiatry, American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology since 1/2010

RESIDENCY/FELLOWSHIP

---

University of California San Diego 7/2007-6/2009

San Diego, CA

Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Fellowship

- Child and Adolescent Psychiatry work experience in the setting of an outpatient clinic, inpatient unit, and consult-liason service.
- Served as Chief Fellow of UCSD fellowship program

Los Angeles County + University of Southern California 2004-2007

Los Angeles, CA

General Psychiatry Residency Program

Physician License issued by The Medical Board of California 5/24/2006

- Training included rotations in Internal Medicine, Neurology, and Pediatrics during PGY-1 year
- Psychiatric experience gained on adult inpatient unit, outpatient clinic, consult-liason service, and multiple subspecialties

EDUCATION

---

University of Illinois in Chicago 1999-2003

Chicago, IL

Medical Degree, Graduated December 18th 2003

Northwestern University 1995-1999

Evanston, IL

Double Major: B.A. in Psychology and B.A. in Biology, with physiology concentration

- G.P.A. – 3.5, Dean's List (5 times), Golden Key National Honors Society

PUBLICATIONS

---

Hong, Jeanne MD; Schonwald, Alison MD; Stein, Martin T. MD. Barking Vocalizations and Shaking Movements in a 13-Year Old Girl. Journal of Developmental & Behavioral Pediatrics:

April 2010 - Volume 31 - Issue 3 - pp S11-S13

MEMBERSHIPS/ACTIVITIES

---

American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry

San Diego Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry

Violin, foreign languages (Korean, some Spanish)