

Rady Children's Hospital-San Diego

Turner Syndrome Family Conference

Saturday, October 14, 2017
10 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Join experts from Rady Children's Specialists Clinics and the University of California, San Diego for updates and discussions on issues in Turner syndrome.

Please register via Eventbrite. Space is limited. Participation is free. Lunch is provided.
<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/turner-syndrome-family-conference-2017-tickets-37349396049>

This event will take place at The Ronald McDonald House at Rady Children's Hospital. Supervised activities will be available for children, ages 3 years and older. Please check in at the Ronald McDonald House Lobby at 10 am. Parking is Free.

Schedule:

10:15 - Unlocking the Mystery - Nutrition Fact or Fiction

Presented by Janet Salvador, R.D., CLE

10:45 – What's in Those Genes?

Presented by geneticist Kristen Wigby, M.D.

11:15 – Journey to Diagnosis: A Parent Perspective

Special guest this year: Mysti Harrison has a master's in psychology, specializes in non-verbal learning, and is a special education teacher, a board member for the Turner Syndrome Society USA and a mother of a 16-year-old daughter with Turner syndrome.

Lunch and Mingle: 11:45–12:45

12:45 – Non-verbal Learning Disability plus Parent Q & A

Presented by Mysti Harrison

1:45 – Turner Resource Network and Support Groups Updates

Breakout Sessions:

10:15 - Children's Program – crafts and conversations

- Ages 3 and up

10:45 – Teen Forum

- Ages 13 – 20