

My Swallow Test at Rady Children's Hospital

Let's Go!

Rady Children's

McDonald's

Everybody needs food to grow.

It's important to know that when I eat food it goes to my tummy.

BACK

NEXT

I've been having trouble eating and swallowing. My doctor wants me to have a special test to look inside my throat.

BACK

NEXT

The doctor can use a big camera to take pictures of food when I eat to be sure it's going into the right place.

BACK

NEXT

My adult helper will bring me to the hospital for this appointment in the Radiology department. Sometimes when we come to the hospital we wear masks!

BACK

NEXT

I get to wait in the waiting room until they call my name.

BACK

NEXT

I'll meet all the people who will help me with my test.

BACK

NEXT

I get to sit in a special chair while they take my picture.

BACK

NEXT

Then I get to eat a snack. Some of the foods and drinks will be white!

BACK

NEXT

My adult helper
can help me
with my snack.

BACK

NEXT

When I am
done eating
I can say
GOOD-BYE!
I did a good job with my swallow test.

BACK